

Sr. Myra Lambert, sscm

Sister Myra Lambert is a Servant of the Holy Heart of Mary. She has served as a teacher, parish minister, vocation minister, and spiritual director. She has a BA from Mundelein College in Chicago, an MA from University of San Francisco, and post-Masters from Sacred Heart University in Fairfield, Connecticut and St. Thomas University in Miami, Florida. Sister completed a 4-year program called Forest Dwellers from the Oblate School of Theology in San Antonio, Texas, and graduated on Zoom during the COVID era. Her passions are reading, both spiritual and fiction, crocheting and knitting and reaching out to family and friends. Sister currently resides at Holy Heart of Mary community in Batavia, Illinois, and meets with spiritual directees both on Zoom and in person.